South Africa Wins the 2006 Women's Championship

South Africa withstood a surge by defending champion Sweden and won the 2006 Women's World Amateur Team Championship on a tiebreaker, becoming the first victorious host nation since 1980.

"It is still amazing to me that we won," South African captain Sandra Winter said of winning the nation's first Espirito Santo Trophy in 17 appearances. "I thought that after we had a slow start we might have a strong finish and we did."

Playing at De Zalze Golf Club, Ashleigh Simon, 17, of Johannesburg, and Kelli Shean, 18, of Cape Town, each shot 2-over par 74 for their final day total of 148. Teammate Stacy Bregman, 19, of Standton, shot 75.

Sweden made up a four-stroke deficit to South Africa, even taking the lead for a brief time. They tied the host nation at 10-under-par for a 72-hole total of 566.

Their counting scores were a 3-under-par 69 from Caroline Westrup, the low individual scorer for the championship, and a 75 from either Anna Nordqvist and Sofie Andersson. Their final round total was 144.

With the initial tie-breaker (final round non-counting score) being equal on 75s from Bregman, and either Nordqvist or Andersson, the procedure moved to the second criteria, the non-counting score from the third round. South Africa's Simon shot 73 in the third round and Sweden's Andersson shot 77.

In 2002, Australia won over Thailand using the first criteria, the only other time a tiebreaker was needed.

"It means so much to me, especially when you win in your home country," Bregman said. The USA won at home in 1980 and France won in 1964. South Africa's previous best finish was a tie for second in 1974.

Shean, who birdied four consecutive holes on the back nine, was the only member of the winning team to have all four of her scores count. In the ebb and flow of the scoring on the second nine holes, her birdie run and two clutch par putts from Simon, on the 16th and 17th holes, were critical.

"I don't think anybody was expecting us to win," Shean said. "But, we proved we could."

Sweden was vying to become the first team to win consecutive championships since the USA did in 1988 and 1990. The Swedes are the only country to finish in the top 10 in all 22 championships.

"If we get a few hours away from this, we will like the silver medal," said Sweden's coach Katarina Vangdal. "I was not surprised by South Africa after

I saw them the first day. They had a great tournament. They were impressive."

Colombia moved from tied for 11th place into bronze-medal placing with a 6-under-par 66 from Carolina Llano, the low round of the day, and a 2-under-par 70 from Bileen Vargas. The Colombians registered a 136, the lowest final round team total in championship history.

France was fourth at 568; Germany and Japan tied for fifth at 569; New Zealand placed seventh at 570; Spain was eighth at 572; the United States of America was ninth at 574; and Chinese Taipei was 10th at 576.

Netherlands Wins the 2006 Men's Championship

Joost Luiten of the Netherlands played his last five holes in six-under-par and finished with a 5-under-par 67 as the Dutch captured the Eisenhower Trophy for the first time as the winners of the 2006 World Amateur Team Championship in Stellenbosch, South Africa.

With Canada and the Netherlands battling for the top position, 20-year-old Luiten began his run with a birdie on the par-5 14th hole at De Zalze Golf Club. He then holed a sand wedge from 93 yards on the par-4 15th for an eagle and closed with birdies on the 16th, 17th and 18th.

With Luiten's 67 and a 2-under-par 70 from Wil Besseling, the Netherlands won by two strokes over second-place Canada and by three over third-place USA at 22-under-par 554. Their winning total is the lowest since the two counting scores format was instituted in 2002.

"His nickname is Pyromaniac and he went on fire," said Dutch coach Chris van der Velde of Luiten, who won the German and French Amateurs in 2004 and the Dutch Stroke Play in 2006. Luiten also won the first stage of European Tour qualifying in 2006 at 22-under-par.

Contrastingly, Luiten's five-hole streak began after he had bogeyed three of his previous four holes.

"It just happened," Luiten said. "After 15, I knew I was in the zone."

For most of the final nine holes, the champions jockeyed with Canada, which shot 7-under-par 137 on a 68 from Richard Scott and a 69 from James Love.

"We didn't lose it," said Canada's captain Doug Roxburgh. "The Netherlands won it. They made the birdies coming home." "You can't question how good they are," said Scott. "They were 22-under par. They went out and won it."

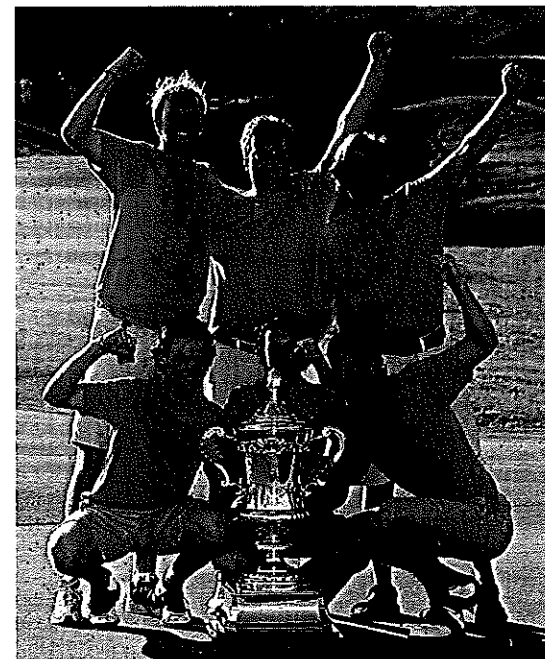

Trip Kuehne was 5-under-par on his second nine and finished at 3-under 69 to go along with a 69 from Chris Kirk to move the USA into the bronze medal slot.

"The Netherlands played great," Kuehne said. "What Joost did out there is the stuff of legends."

The previous best finish for the Netherlands was a tie for eighth place in 1992 and 1994. The host South Africans finished tied for 22nd.

The rest of the top 10 included: Wales in 4th at 559, Korea in 5th at 561, England, Scotland and Argentina tied for 6th at 563, and France and Ireland tied for 9th at 564.

Although there is no individual recognition, Besseling was the low scorer at 13-under-par 275.

Section 2. Place

(a) The Championships shall be rotated among the three following Zones in the order stated:

Each Member Organization shall inform the Administrative Office biennially as to whether or not it will enter the Championships; such notification shall reach the Administrative Office not later than three months before the first Championship.

Each Member Organization which enters the Championships shall inform the Administrative Office of the personnel of its Team not later than one month before the Championships. At the date of closing of entries, if the number of Teams entered does not exceed the maximum acceptable number, the Teams will consist of two or three players. If the number of Teams entered exceeds the maximum acceptable, then the Administrative Committee shall determine a revised format for the Championships or a method of eliminating entries, as it considers appropriate.

(b) The Championships shall be conducted in accordance with the Rules of Golf as approved by The R&A and the United States Golf Association.

(c) The Championships shall consist of 72 holes stroke play; 18 holes each on four consecutive days of the Championship period. All the players of each Team shall be eligible for all four rounds; disqualification of a player under the Rules of Golf in any round shall not be effective for any subsequent round unless the Championship Committee determines otherwise.

The Secretariat shall determine the starting times for each country and the course on which each country plays. They shall also determine the method by which the countries are divided between the two courses for the third and fourth rounds.

In each 18-hole round, the total of the two lowest scores by players of each Team shall constitute the Team score for that round.

The total of the two-player Team scores for the four rounds shall be the Team's score for the Championship.

The Champion shall be the Team with the lowest such total score for 72 holes.

(d) Prior to the start of every Championship, the Administrative Committee shall decide the procedure to be adopted in the event of a tie.

Section 4. Prizes

(a) The Eisenhower Trophy, presented to the Federation by the Friends of American Golf through The R&A and the United States Golf Association, shall be held for the ensuing biennium by the Member Organization whose Team is the winner of the World Amateur Team Championship.

(b) The Espirito Santo Trophy, presented to the Federation by the family of Ricardo Espirito Santo through the Portuguese Golf Federation, shall be held for the ensuing biennium by the Member Organization whose Team is the winner of the Women's World Amateur Team Championship.

(c) A uniform type of prize for individuals shall be awarded to the players and the Captains of the winning Teams, the second-place Teams, and the third-place Teams.

(d) No other prizes may be accepted from any source, except symbolic gifts by a Member Organization to its Teams.

Section 5. Championship Committee; Course Unplayable

(a) The Administrative Committee shall appoint a Championship Committee to conduct the event. The host Member Organization shall be represented on the Championship Committee.

(b) The Championship Committee shall be authorized to decide when a Championship course is unplayable.

(c) If a Championship course is declared unplayable and as a result it is not possible to complete 72 holes of play in the period in which the Championship is scheduled, the Championship shall not be extended beyond the last scheduled day and the winner shall be the Team which returns the lowest score for the number of stipulated rounds played, except that, if it is not possible to play at least 36 holes in the four scheduled days, the Championship shall be terminated without a Champion being determined.

ARTICLE VI

Arrangements for Championships

The Member Organization entertaining the Championships shall have the honor of and be responsible for planning and arranging for the Championships, subject to the applicable provisions of these Articles and approval by the Administrative Committee, and for all the expenses in connection therewith except the expenses of the Teams. Each such person shall be a citizen or normally a resident of the country of the Member Organization he/she represents. Any country entertaining a future Championship that is not represented in the Administrative Committee shall be entitled to one representative to serve on the Committee in a non-voting capacity.

Section 2. Nomination; Election

(a) The Administrative Committee shall serve as a Nominating Committee and shall propose to the Biennial Meeting thirteen Member Organizations to receive the right to appoint one representative each to the next Administrative Committee.

Member countries from each of the three Zones should determine in advance of the Administrative Committee Meeting how they would nominate the countries to be represented on the next Administrative Committee. However, if for any reason they cannot come to an agreement on the countries, or which countries will provide male or female representatives, the Joint Chairmen and the Women's Chairman will assume responsibility for nominating the countries/representatives.

Additional nominations may be made by Delegates to the Biennial Meeting.

(b) At each Biennial Meeting thirteen Member Organizations shall be chosen, by ballot, to receive the right to appoint one representative (or substitute) each to the Administrative Committee, to serve for two years. The term shall commence immediately following the current World Amateur Team Championships and will conclude immediately following the next World Amateur Team Championships. The R&A and the United States Golf Association shall be permanently entitled to appoint one representative each.

(c) Each Member Organization so chosen shall promptly appoint its representative to the Administrative Committee and give the Administrative Office notification of the appointment.

(d) A Member Organization shall have the right to change its appointee to the Administrative Committee; any such change shall become effective when the Administrative Office receives notification thereof.

Section 3. Duties

The Administrative Committee shall conduct the affairs of the Federation, subject to the provisions of these Articles and to directions of the Federation.

Section 4. Meetings

A female candidate for this office is nominated by the Administrative Committee and ratified at the Biennial Meeting. The term shall commence immediately following the current World Amateur Team Championships and will conclude immediately following the World Amateur Team Championships six years later.

The Joint Secretaries shall be appointed by the Administrative Committee.

HISTORY OF THE INTERNATIONAL GOLF FEDERATION

Dilemma, but a good one:

By the 1950s, the United States Golf Association (USGA) has received too many invitations for international matches against individual countries to be able to accept them all.

January, 1958:

The USGA Executive Committee, discussing yet another of these generous invitations - this time from Japan - proposes the establishment of an international team competition so that all countries can participate in these types of events.

March, 1958:

Representatives from the USGA travel to Scotland to discuss the idea with representatives of The Royal & Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland (The R&A). The concept is enthusiastically received.

May, 1958:

Representatives from 35 countries meet in Washington, D.C., USA, hosted by the USGA and The R&A, to establish the World Amateur Golf Council (WAGC), so that it may conduct the World Amateur Team Championship. The meeting is arranged through cooperation with Pan American Airlines and the U.S. Department of State, and the trips of all attendees are funded by an anonymous group, the Friends of American Golf. President Dwight D. Eisenhower welcomes the group in the White House Rose Garden. The Council is begun with 32 Member Organizations and governing Articles are established.

October, 1958:

The first Championship is hosted by The R&A on the Old Course at St. Andrews, Scotland. The Australian team defeats the American team in an 18-hole play-off by two strokes. Bob Jones is the Captain of the USA team.

September, 1960:

The second Championship is hosted by the USGA at Merion Golf Club (East Course) in Ardmore, Pennsylvania. Although the original 1958 Delegates envisioned that the Championship would be match play by this year, it has remained at stroke play through the present day. Jack Nicklaus's 72-hole record of 269 at Merion GC still stands today.

1964:

The French Golf Federation proposes that the USA Curtis Cup Team stop in France for an informal match following the Curtis Cup Match in Wales. The USGA accepts the invitation but also suggests inviting other nations to create a women's counterpart to the World Amateur Team Championship. The French are delighted to do so.

Vicomtesse de Saint Sauveur (known to many as Lally Segard), of France, and Mrs. Henri Prunaret, of the United States, planned the Championship.

October, 1964:

The French Golf Federation holds the first Women's World Amateur Team Championship. Twenty-five teams compete. France beats the USA by one stroke.

With sincere thanks to France, it is unanimously agreed that the World Amateur Golf Council will hereafter conduct the Women's event.

1991:

The World Amateur Golf Council becomes affiliated to the International Olympic Committee as its recognized International Federation for golf.

2003:

The World Amateur Golf Council changes its name to the International Golf Federation.

THE TROPHIES

Notes

Espirito Santo

The Cup once belonged to the Tsar of Russia, Nicolas II. It is rumored to once have been gold plated. After the Russian Revolution of 1917 the precious belongings of the Royal Family were scattered in auction sales and Ricardo and Silvia Espirito Santo of Portugal bought the Cup. The original intention was for a Portuguese International event, but as it was only played once or twice the Trophy then had no destination. Vicomtesse de Saint Sauveur, the co-founder of the Women's World Amateur Team Championship in 1964, contacted the Espirito Santos when she heard the Cup might be available. They were thrilled to offer the Trophy, through the Portuguese Golf Federation, for the inaugural event in France.

Eisenhower

With the blessing of Dwight D. Eisenhower, 34th President of the United States of America, the World Amateur Team Championship is played for the Eisenhower Trophy. It is inscribed, "To foster friendship and sportsmanship among the Peoples of the World," the IGF's guiding principle. The trophy was presented, via the United States Golf Association and The Royal & Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland (now The R&A), by the Friends of American Golf for the inaugural World Amateur Team Championship played on the Old Course in St. Andrews in 1958.
